

I fully support satellite radio for quality of programming and access to quality reception in areas not available from AM/FM stations. I use xm radio and am enormously pleased by satellite radio service. Please do not let standard broadcasting issues hinder satellite radio in any way including advertising issues. Thank you. Erwin K McDonald